J.M. Barrie said, "Nothing is really work unless you would rather be doing something else." Although we work hard for Student Media, we wouldn't want to be doing anything else. Through the co-workers who become our friends we turn out a product we're proud to call our own. Visit the Student Media table at the student organization fairs around campus or just stop by and visit with any of our student leaders on the third floor of Witherspoon for more information.

Agromeck

The official yearbook presents a historical record of the year's events in pictures and words. A classic yearbook, the Agromeck documents the lives of the 30,000-plus students, faculty and staff on the campus, covering everything from football games to fraternity and sorority events and classroom activities. The Agromeck is published and distributed each fall. • 515-2409 • ncsu.edu/agromeck

A collection of memories

Americana

An online magazine provides students with a unique experience over the Web. The magazine provides engaging, interesting and thought-provoking content, which invites discussion from its readers in online forums. Americana is updated every two weeks. • americana.ncsu.edu

A modern medium

Nubian Message

The voice of Afrikan-American students, the Nubian Message allows people to learn about different aspects of the Afrikan-American culture. The periodical is a source of useful information for all students by reporting on events that appeal to the University community. • 515-1468 • ncsu.edu/nubian

A different perspective

Technician

A daily newspaper, the Technician reports the events of interest to the University community and functions as a meeting place for campus opinions through letters and guest-written material. The paper is available five days a week during the fall and spring semesters and once a week during summer sessions. • 515-2411 • technicianonline.com

A campus correspondent

Windhover

A literary and visual arts journal, Windhover includes written and graphic arts representing the creativity of students, faculty, staff and alumni.
